Special Highlights of Max Potential 2015

Every programme has its highs and lows however we were really pleased with some milestones achieved in this year’s programme. I thought it important to list those for your highlights for all to acknowledge

1. For the first time we had 3 NSW police officers involved for the first time in the 6 years of this programme.

2. Through Lieutenant Colonel Scott Morris we were indeed fortunate to have Major Thomas Middleton as the Clubs NSW sponsored coach.

3. There were 3 repeat coaches in the programme this year, 2 of them in their second year and one coach was in her 4th year in the programme. It is great to have repeat coaches to share their experiences. It also demonstrates that Coaches really appreciate the additional learning that they obtain as well as the enjoyment they obtain from working with the Young Adults.

4. With the Coal and Allied sponsorship from their Aboriginal Community Development Fund, it was pleasing to have 2 indigenous young adults, 1 from Singleton and 1 from Muswellbrook complete the programme.

5. Singleton Lions joined us as a sponsor this year and linked up with one of the Singleton Diggers trainees in their Community Service Project.

6. 5 repeat sponsors with the programme this year, namely Singleton Council, Clubs NSW, Glencore Mangoola and Glencore Mt Owen and Singleton Council.

7. Connection with so many community groups a goal of the Diggers Club for this programme, namely Hunter tennis Club, Neighbourhood Centre, Salvation Army, Singleton Lions, Muswellbrook Netball, Singleton Public school, Braxton Tidy Towns, Singleton Archery, Singleton Junior Cricket, Singleton and Muswellbrook PCYC, Muswellbrook Police, Muswellbrook and Singleton PCYC and Muswellbrook Physie Group.

8. An increase to 3 Muswellbrook High School year 11 adults.

9. 2 new Muswellbrook coaches, one coach took on 2 Young Adults.

10. Singleton Diggers staff member Kristy George, a Young Adult in 2014 decided to put back in 2015 and became a coach and did a great job with a Singleton HS Young Adult.
